Directive 2011/65/EU (RoHS)

Directive 2011/65/EU on the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment governs the use of problematic substances in equipment and components. The main aim of the Directive is to prohibit certain parts that have been proven to be of harm to humans and the environment from being used in the products in question.

As a manufacturer of electrical and electronic equipment, we are an economic operator under the terms of the aforementioned Directive.

We hereby confirm that the equipment manufactured by us complies with the aforementioned Directive.
